

The Day We Opened the Ark

□ by Rhuemy Scumgrief- Scribe for the day

The Story!

□ Bill was lawful & Spark read the dreams

Pike held the torch

Nerak watched

□ They put the golden rods in the holes smoothly with no complaint + opened the box carefully.

□ There was no noise

no dangly things caused trouble

Spark said he was scared.

□ Spark described the box

- You can see to the bottom which was level off, but not to the base of the Ark. There was a circle on the floor with
- box, crystals, scroll - vanished.

In the box

- Along the inside: 4 knights + mirrors.
 - One knight against each wall.
 - All the warriors, lights + mirrors.
 - Markers on the walls correspond to the stars on the constellations.
- There's paper on dragon + constellations.
- Lights = Dragonbreath.
 - Add smoke + you can see better.
 - Bill did the ritual:

- (First, he lubed up with blessing oil then he fasted. Spark said documenting the fast was important.)
- Light the candle.
- Touched the thing, gave it a power point.

#1 Baracal (Brother of Samuel)

- Warning: If you are not good-spirited + ill-spirited or greedy, then the presence of the Ark makes it worse. The Ark will feed temptation + lead to the downfall.
- But: If you are a guardian, you are welcome. The Ark has golden dragons that will walk again. He offered no petty assurances.
- Welcome warrior guardians, be bold + negative oblivion again.
- There is hope of a new dawn + we will guide your path.

#2 someone important

- I brought the guides here + have been around since the beginning of the lost time.

- ☐ Before everything + history there were 4 dragons.
 - ☐ When humans were first in existence, they were their mentors.
 - ☐ There to watch, teach + counsel humans through existence.
 - ☐ Originally colossal dragons.
 - ☐ They were there with mankind while they battled decay + chaos, bringing order to the world.
 - ☐ Then men were on their own.
 - ☐ There were a secret sect of warriors "Dragon Warriors" waiting for signs of the Dragons' return.
 - ☐ They noticed 4 new bright stars in the sky.
- ☐ If you wish to access the dragons' lair, make sure that the breath aligns with the constellations.
 - ☐ You will hear the dragons' roar; when the mirrors are in the right place, you'll hear nothing.

☐ #3 Sevrear the Watcher:

- ☐ Dragons' breath has all the force of the Sun + will scorch anything it touches.
 - ☐ Back in the day there were loads of glorious victories.
 - ☐ Out of this victory came the heart of darkness which created Oblivion the essence of the void.
 - ☐ 1000 victories = 1000 graveyards = the army of the dead.
- ☐ How do you bring death to death itself? Enclose it in the Ark, under the guidance of Samuel.

☐ Helios: The watchers will guide you. There is a scroll in the Ark — Helios is the key. Protections protect it.

- ☐ The dragons' breath will burn anything in the way. Warriors (Mirrors) can contain the breath.
- ☐ Don't go for the scroll unless there is no noise, otherwise everything burns.
- ☐ Use the crystal to bind the essence of the Oblivion.
- ☐ Jeramia will give you more info.

□ #4 Jeramia

- □ Before the sun sleeps for the final time. Something about Hallowed Halls.
- □ For protection there are instructions in the scroll.

Here is a summary:

1. □ Create a circle of light; the circle will attract once one steps in. Can focus oblivion + stops everything else existing in oblivion's focus.
2. □ (Elati?) draws attention of Oblivion.
3. □ The Crystal will absorb oblivion — is called Ethereal.
4. □ Put the crystal in the Ark.
5. □ Close the Ark.
6. □ In constant contact w/ the crystal: the contact gives the bearer permanent damage.

- o □ The words can be spoken by all

- o □ Show oblivion the light/goodness + voluntarily disarm!! (By being fabulous, simply of forbearance).

- o □ If struck by blows, bare the wound with forbearance.

- □ The Circle of Defence + Protection: Darkness can live in everything + you must show it a spark of light.

- □ Oblivion will try + cause destruction.
- □ Only use the golden rods to open + close the Ark.

The Day We played with fire breath (well Marko did)

□ (By Rhuemy Scumgrief — Scribe again)

- □ The day we played with fire breath (well Marko + Kas did).
- □ Bill + Spark took the lid off + everyone was excited to see inside.
- □ Layla + Rhuemy + Kas lubed up so they could touch the magic stuff.
- □ Bill activated it + everyone was amazed to hear the lovely celestial voices.

- #1 see yesterday for wot it said
- □ Gravy was in awe to hear chit-chat from an ancient dragon.
- #2
- #3 □ Layla said that it was Spark's fault if it goes wrong.
- #4
- □ Note: Gravy burnt himself on the smoke.
- Layla can't be trusted with the smoke!

- □ Marko did the first + second dragons' mirrors. (Rhuemy burnt her hand with the smoke + can't be trusted like Layla).
- □ Kas did the third + fourth.
- □ The last one was harder; had to bounce it, ray wasn't strong enough. But then something happened + it all worked.
- □ The dragons were quiet + stopped roaring (which sounded like snoring).

- □ Marko nearly lost his hand in the dragon breath. Rhuemy + Kas were scared.
- □ Then Marko moved the dragons' breath away from the middle + reached in + there was a box + a scroll + we were all happy.

- □ We picked up Layla's stuff + went home out of the smoke.

The big fight

Still/Rhuemy here

There was a big fight and some silliness with a Nobby slitting throats from behind curtains and Puke stood at the back.

But we won anyway and saved the world.
